That's too much money. Departure 2: "At the moment, I doubt that spending more money for the project will improve the situation. So no. Part 3: "I fully agree with the proposal. IT is fundamental for the future of our company". Partnership 4: "I think the same about this proposal. It's too important not to. Departure 5: "At the moment, with the current economic situation, it is out of question. We don't have any more money." Departure 6: "I understand Peter's point, but at the moment, we must save and not spend." Part 7: "I have no problem with the proposal. So, I agree. Part 8: "It's interesting, but I think we should wait before we make any decisions." "Peter, don't you think it would be better to wait until June when we know exactly what we need? So, I can't agree right now, sorry. Departure 10: "To be honest, I think it's too much money right now. So no. Give each group of four a set of chord cards and a set of topic cards. Students mix each set of cards and place them face down on the table in two piles. A student begins by turning over a topic card from the pile and putting it face on the table to all see, for example sports. The student then collects the agreed cards and looks at the sentence on the first card without showing it to anyone, such as 'So do I'. A member of the group then begins a minute. The student then tries to make one of the other students say the written phrase on the paper making a statement on the theme, for example 'Sometimes football game in the park'. The first student to accept the statement using the correct phrase wins and keeps the card. The student then looks at the next sentence and makes another statement on the topic, trying to overcome the most so, neither cards as much as possible before the time limit is up. When the time limit was reached, studentson their agreed cards, marking a point for each. The agreed cards are then collected in, filled and it is the turn of the next student to turn on a topic card and make statements to urge the phrases on the cards. The game continues until all the topic boards were used. The student with the most points at the end of the game wins. agreeing disagreeing exercises pdf. expressing opinion agreeing and disagreeing exercises. giving opinion agreeing disagreeing exercises. suggesting agreeing disagreeing exercises. agreeing and disagreeing exercises esl. agreeing and disagreeing listening exercises. agreeing and disagreeing expressions exercises. opinion agreeing and disagreeing exercises
